Library of Congress,

Washington, Oct 17th, 1872.

Sir:

In reply to your communication of 14th

I have to advise you that the volumes of

The Liberator

have arrived in good order; I am much indebted to you for the care and interest you have taken in endeavoring to complete this set for the National Library.

Should you hereafter find any of the yet wanting volumes, please communicate with me.

Very respectfully,

A R Spofford

Librarian of Congress.
